In 2012, the Florida Southern College Historic District was designated a National Historic Landmark by the National Park Service of the U.S. Department of the Interior for being the largest single-site collection of Frank Lloyd Wright architecture in the world.

PLEASE JOIN US IN AN AMAZING TOUR OF THESE HISTORIC BUILDINGS DESIGNED BY THE RENOWN ARCHITECT.

Directions
Tours meet and tickets are sold at the GEICO gift shop located at 840 Johnson Avenue.

Driving: From Interstate 4, take exit #32 (US 98 South) The name of the street changes to S. Florida Avenue. Stay on South Florida Avenue about a half mile past the downtown area. Turn left on Frank Lloyd Wright Way (formerly McDonald St.) and go six blocks. The Tourism and Education Center is on the corner of Frank Lloyd Wright Way and Johnson Avenue in the butterscotch colored bungalow. Look for the American flag.

Parking: Parking is available across the street at Florida Southern College. Contact us for special parking instructions for buses and large motor homes.
